

NWR New Welsh Review Presents:

Mark Tredinnick Wales Tour

Six readings from the awardwinning Australian poet

Image © Vicki Freer 2010

“One of our great poets of place—not just of geographic place, but of the spiritual and moral landscapes as well.”

— Judy Beveridge

A unique opportunity to meet the top prize-winner of £5,000 in the prestigious Cardiff International Poetry Competition 2012, one of Australia’s primary poets of landscape.

Mark also won the Montreal International Poetry Prize in 2011. NWR 97 featured his Cardiff International Poetry prizewinning poem, ‘Margaret River Sestets.’ Judge Sinéad Morrissey wrote of its ‘breathtaking fluency.’

Mark is the author of eleven highly acclaimed works of poetry and prose, including his collection Fire Diary. He lives and writes from his farmhouse along the Wingecarribee River in New South Wales.

Monday 18 March | 19.00 – 21.00 | Free

The Ends of the Earth, The Atrium, Glamorgan University, Adam Street, Cardiff

Reading alongside poet and critic Jeremy Hooker pgross@glam.ac.uk

Tuesday 19 March | 18.30 – 20.00 | Free

Aberystwyth University, Arts Centre Bookshop, Aberystwyth

Chaired by poet and novelist Katherine Stansfield
acbstaff@aber.ac.uk

Monday 25 March | 19.30-22.00 | £3.00

Poems and Pints, Queen’s Hotel, Carmarthen

Includes an open-mic
anthony@write4word.org or (07772) 649316

Tuesday 26 March | 16.15-18.15 | £2.00 / £1.00

The Writers’ World, The Quad, University of Wales Trinity Saint David, Carmarthen Campus

ros.hudis@googlemail.com or m.elfyn@tsd.ac.uk

Thursday 28 March | 19.30-21.30 | £4.00 / Conc.

Poets at the Dylan Thomas Centre, Somerset Place Swansea

Includes an open-mic
(01792) 463980 or www.dylanthomas.com

Friday 29 March | 19.30 - 00.00 | £3.00

Cellar Bards, Cellar Bar, Cardigan

Includes an open-mic charlotteep2001@yahoo.co.uk
(07971) 660025 or Cellar Bards Facebook page

CANOLFAN Y CELFYDDYDAU
ABERYSTWYTH ARTS CENTRE

The Dylan Thomas Centre

